

Trinity Church
Statement of Faith

1. The scriptures, both the Old and the New Testaments, are verbally inspired of God and are the revelation of God to man: The infallible, authoritative, all sufficient rule for faith and conduct.
2. There is one true God eternally co-equal, co-existent, and co-eternal in three persons: The Father, The Son, and The Holy Ghost.
3. That Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God. The scriptures declare His virgin birth, His sinless life, His miracles, and his substitution work on the cross, and his bodily resurrection from the dead, and His exaltation to the right hand of God.
4. That all have sinned and come short of the glory of God and need to be reconciled to God through the eternal spirit.
5. Man's only hope of salvation is through the shed blood of Jesus Christ the Son of God. Salvation is received through repentance toward God and faith toward the Lord, Jesus Christ. The inward evidence of salvation is the direct witness of the spirit. The outward evidence to all men is a life of righteousness and true holiness.
6. That the baptism of the Holy Ghost, in accordance with Acts 2:4, is given to believers who ask for it.
7. That the power of the Holy Spirit empowers a believer to live a life apart from that which is evil and a life dedicated unto God. The scripture teaches a life of "Holiness without which no man shall see the Lord."
8. That the redemptive work of Christ on the cross provided for the healing of the human body in answer to believing prayer.
9. That the coming of the Church includes the rapture of the saints, which is our blessed hope, followed by the visible return of Christ with his saints, to reign on the earth for one thousand years.
10. In the resurrection of both the saved and the lost, the one to everlasting life and the other to eternal damnation.
